We, the students, vow to act honorably in all academic coursework. As such:

- 1) We agree to neither give nor receive unpermitted aid in examinations, reports, or any other work that is subject to the basis of grading
- 2) We agree to actively take part in upholding our neighbors to such a standard prescribed in this Code of Commitment to Honor, including but not limited to, the reporting of any violations in the spirit of this Code Commitment.

We, the faculty and staff, vow to have utter confidence in the honor of all students. As such:

- 1) We agree to refrain from pursuing unreasonable precautions to prevent forms of academic dishonesty and to maintain a level of trust and honor of the students' commitment to this code.
- 2) We encourage methods of testing that foster upholding these principles listed within this Code.

Violations of these above principles will be considered a violation of this Code of Commitment to Honor as well as the Code of Conduct. Any offense of this type may be reported by students, faculty, and staff to the office of Student Advocacy and Accountability. Not reporting a potential violation of this Code of Commitment to Honor in itself shall not be considered a violation to this Code Commitment, but rather a violation of the upholding as well as an encroachment on the spirit of standards listed within set forth by the Commitment to Community that unites LSU as an entity.

The establishment of this Code of Commitment to Honor acknowledges that all students, faculty, and staff of Louisiana State University Agricultural and Mechanical College agree to commit to integrity and honor in all academic endeavors excellence and honor at all academic levels as well as personal integrity and responsibility.

Statement of acknowledgement of this Code of Commitment to Honor:

"On my honor, I affirm that my academic endeavors are the product of my honest efforts and I commit to hold myself and others to these academic standards as set forth by LSU's Commitment to Honor. I have upheld the standards listed within the Tiger Creed and that my academic work is the product of my sole unaided efforts""

PROCEDURES:

This LSU Code of Honor Commitment to Honor shall be implemented immediately upon its approval. Students shall be instructed on this Code of Honor Commitment to Honor during their respective orientation period.

The eode of honor Commitment to Honor can be amended by a two third majority vote of the eode of honor Commitment to Honor committee.
