A Bill

*To appropriate a maximum of five thousand

funding and installation of the creative crosswalk*

1 WHEREAS; Amelia Gabor, Madelyn Cutrone, Charlie
2 Stephens, Marshall Mills, and Emma Chance are the 3 epitomes of passionate, dedicated student leaders on this 4 campus and are the authors of the original TigerCross
5 proposal that is the source of the statistics and inspiration 6 for this bill text, and 7 WHEREAS; a new emphasis should be placed on 8 increasing pedestrian safety and improving campus
9 mobility due to LSU being a walking campus, and 10 WHEREAS; a myriad of crosswalks on campus are 11 dilapidated and lack the structural integrity required to 12 promote a true sense of safety, and 13 WHEREAS; the city of Baton Rouge is the 11th deadliest 14 city in the country for pedestrians, and 15 WHEREAS; the U.S. Department of Transportation
16 Federal Highway Administration recommends crosswalks
17 using paint or epoxy paint be repainted 2-4 times per year, 18 but such recommendations have not been considered, and 19 WHEREAS; according to Bloomberg Philanthropies and 20 Sam Schwartz Engineering, the Creative Crosswalks
21 program promotes a decrease in collisions and injuries at 22 intersections by over 50%, a 38% drop in pedestrians
23 entering crosswalks at inappropriate times, and a 24 newfound overall sense of awareness of the presence of a 25 crosswalk, and

SGB 19

26
 27 WHEREAS; college campuses in Arkansas, New York,
 28 Washington, South Carolina, Mississippi, etc., participate 29 in the Creative Crosswalk program, and 30 WHEREAS; President Tate has explained that “[there are]
 31 potholes everywhere. No lines on crosswalks. Danger zones 32 are pretty high,” and further highlights the necessity of 33 “beautify[ing] campus,” to contribute to an overall sense of 34 pedestrian safety, and

35
 36 WHEREAS; the funds will be roughly allocated as follows:

Pressure Washer Rental	$100
Primer	$375
Sealant	$270
Stencil	$1000
Paint	$500

37 and,
 38
